March 12 to March 18, 2006

Encouraging youth to plan for a brighter future by saving sex for marriage.

Abstinence Awareness Week Opportunities for Community Participation

- Abstinence Awareness Sunday: March 12, 2006:

(1) An opportunity to promote the benefits of abstinence until marriage to your congregation: Suggestions for educational activities for youth are available at www.ultrateenchoice.org.

(2) Encourage your congregation to participate in DC Council and Mayoral Awareness day on March 17, 2006.

- School Awareness Activities (all week)

(1) Meet with the principal of the school that your child attends to advocate for the directive teaching of abstinence before marriage. Arrange to have a guest speaker come to your child's school.

(2) An abstinence awareness assembly will be held at Stuart-Hobson Middle School on Thursday, March 16 at 9:50 a.m.

- DC City Council & Mayoral Awareness Day, Friday, March 17, 2006:

(1) Concerned youth and adults will meet with their City Council members to educate them about the benefits of teaching abstinence before marriage to our youth. Participants will highlight the health and societal benefits of providing significant funding for prevention education that is directive and teaches abstinence until marriage.

(2) A press conference is planned.
